

Celebrating 150 years of The Heart of Wales railway line in Knighton and Knucklas

Take the train & explore this wonderful bit of country, climb Knucklas Castle Hill for a stunning panoramic view of the surrounding hills. Knucklas studios will be open till 6.30 Saturday & Sunday to link with the train, also for travelling to & from Folk down the Track at The Castle Inn on Saturday.

Open Studios 4 days 11-5pm, till 6.30 Saturday & Sunday

The Old School West Street Knighton LD7 1EN

packed with good stuff:

Andy Hazell/wobbly tin things
Kate Morgan-Clare/assemblages Alison Ross/textiles
Laura Lunn/paintings Nick Holmes/paintings
Ciara Lewis/paintings Rachael Taylor/portraits

Upper House Knucklas LD7 1PN

Lottie O'Leary's stone carving workshop & gallery

Cassia Gomersall/paper & textiles Julienne Braham/paintings

David Gomersall/sculptor & painter Jason Braham/potter

Brontë Woodruff/paintings

Martin Evans' film 'Heart Beat' shows throughout the weekend

Castle Hill Arts Knucklas LD7 1PS

Lois Hopwood/painter

Tony Hall/potter

Castle Garden Knucklas LD7 1PS

Maggie Jones/painter

Cwm Jenkin Knucklas LD7 1PT

Wendy Davies/painter. Only open Monday 4 June, 11- 4pm

Soup, tea, & cakes, + a stall in aid of the Knucklas Castle Community Land Project. A lovely walk from the centre of the village, especially if the bluebells are out.

leary.lottie@gmail.com 01547 528 792

www.heart-of-wales.co.uk

www.knucklascastle.org.uk